Guidelines for Manuscript Submission to Anchor

1. All research articles should be typed on one side of A4 size paper with 1.5 line spacing. Articles must be accompanied by an abstract of 100–200 words and about five key words listed in alphabetical order. Notes, if any, should be numbered serially and presented at the end of the article. Articles should generally not exceed a total word count of 6000 words.
2. The article should have a title page with all details like title of the paper, name(s) of the author(s), their affiliations/designations and contact details. The actual article/paper preceded with an abstract should commence on page 2. As papers will be peer reviewed through a blind-folded peer-review system, name(s) of author(s) should not appear anywhere else other than on title page.
3. Use single quotes throughout. Double quotes are to be used within single quotes only. Spellings of words in quotations should not be changed. Quotations of 45 words or more should be separated from the text and indented with one space, with a line space above and below.
4. Spell out numbers from one to nine; 10 and above to remain in figures. For exact measurements use only figures (5 kms, 8 percent).
5. When referring to a century use words, e.g., 'twentieth century' and when reference is made to a decade use numbers, e.g., '1990s'.
6. Tables and figures to be indicated by number (e.g., see Table 1), and not by placement (e.g. see Table below).
7. Only British spellings should be used.
8. Plagiarism level should be below 10%.
9. All papers should adequately acknowledge sources. Paper contributors are solely responsible for issues arising out of plagiarism and copyright violations (Fr. Agnel College of Arts & Commerce, Pilar, the Publisher or the editorial board will not be liable in any way for the same).
10. Papers should be forwarded for the purpose of consideration of publication via email to charmaine@fragnelcollege.edu.in
11. A consolidated alphabetical list of all books, articles, reports, essays etc. referred to should be provided at the end of the article under 'References' (references should include only those sources which were actually made use of and cited in the main text). All sources should be listed in alphabetical order of author, giving the author's surname first followed by initials. If more than one publication by the same author is listed, the items should be given in chronological order. References are to be embedded in text in the anthropological style, e.g., '(Lal 2015)' or 'Lal (2015)' or '(Lal 2015, 35)'. Citations should be first alphabetical and then chronological, for e.g., (Das 2014; Fernandes 1999; Seth 2010)'. Basic style of referencing is as follows:

In case of book:

Agarwal, O. P. and Chaudhuri, B. K. (2009). Foreign trade and foreign exchange. Mumbai: Himalya Publishing House.

In case of edited book:

Butler, R., Hall, C. M. & Jenkins J (eds.) (1998). Tourism and recreation in rural areas.
New York: Wiley.

In case of journal article:

Mahal, Ajay (2004). Economic implications of inertia on HIV/AIDS and benefits of action. Economic and Political Weekly.
March 6: 1049–1063.

In case of chapter in edited book:

Nielsen, Jette and B. Melgaard (2004). The economic and security dimensions of HIV/AIDS in Asia. In Jai P. Narain edited,
AIDS in Asia: The challenge ahead. Chp. 2: 42–57. New Delhi: Sage.

In case of web-links:

Besides the above guidelines, the exact hyperlink needs to be provided along with the month in which the article was retrieved.
